

Inspiring
Women
Events

Being a Secure Woman in an insecure world

Do you long to be a godly influence in your family, your church and your community? Do you desire the spiritual strength to face intimidating events and circumstances with confidence rather than fear, doubt or despair? This seminar unfolds the principles of becoming a secure woman in God – whatever your stage of life or circumstances. Come and explore:

- The unsuccessful routes women take to find security
- What to do when events and circumstances threaten to intimidate you
- How to develop an ever-increasing consciousness of how much you are loved by God
- How to remain strong and stable in the midst of life's storms

Speaker:

Lynette Brooks is the Director of Publishing and Ministry at CWR. She leads various Inspiring Women seminars, MBTI® days and other CWR seminars and events together with Mick Brooks.

Venue: Colchester Road Baptist Church, Colchester Road, Ipswich, Suffolk, IP4 4ST (Parking in Sidegate Lane West, at the back of the church)

Date: Saturday 4 November 2017
10am – 1.30pm (9.30am registration and coffee)

Cost: £3 per person

For more information and to buy tickets, contact Maureen Carnell on 01473 683434 or email dandmcarnell@talktalk.net

Cheques payable to RE-NEW should be sent to: Maureen Carnell, 12 Badgers Bank, Ipswich, Suffolk, IP2 9EN

NB Please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

To find out more about all of CWR's courses and events, visit www.cwr.org.uk/courses or call 01252 784719